

Psychodrama Training Group for Professionals in Recovery

In this 4-day Training Group, participants will have the opportunity to deepen their understanding of using the 12-Steps in Action, of working with recovering clients, motivating “resistant” clients, and attending to the body when helping clients heal from addiction, codependency and trauma. Group members will be trained in sociometry, psychodrama and group psychotherapy, be taught specific action techniques that they can use in their work and will have opportunities for personal growth and student directing.

*Recovery can be from addiction(s) to substances, food, relationships, sex, debt, etc. Participants MUST have at least 2 years of continuous recovery and be actively working a 12-Step program (meetings, step work, sponsor, service, etc) in order to participate in this group.
